

IN PARTNERSHIP with the Justice System Training & Research Institute at Roger Williams University, Bristol, RI, the Association continues a tradition begun in 1967 with the New England Institute for Law Enforcement Management to expand training and education, particularly in specialized management and leadership principles for law enforcement supervisors, command officers, managers, and administrators.

WE CONTRIBUTE to scholarships to the Command Training Series at Roger Williams University and make annual contributions to the Jimmy Fund, Special Olympics as well as other worthwhile charitable causes.

WE WELCOME your interest, your membership, and your participation in our prestigious organization that is dedicated to serve the professional police executive and is committed to the pursuit of excellence in the field of law enforcement.

Congratulations,
Looking forward to your active participation.

Sincerely,

President

THE NEW ENGLAND ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE, INC.

WE ARE the New England Association of Chiefs Of Police, Inc., founded in 1926 and incorporated in 1939 by virtue of the powers conferred by Article III of Chapter 248 of the General Laws of the State of Rhode Island.

WE ORGANIZED for the purpose of securing a closer official and personal relationship among Chiefs of Police, Superintendents of Police and the Chief Commanding Officers of all Police Departments in the New England States; to encourage a cordial and cooperative intercourse among all Police Officials wherever they may be; to advance the science pertaining to the prevention and detection of crime and the apprehension of criminals; to elevate the standards of police service; to support full tenure of office for those employed in that service; and to uphold the honor and integrity of the police profession.

Membership in this Association shall consist of Active, Active Life, Life, Associate Professional, Associate and Honorary members.

WE RECOGNIZE the need for a unified effort to promote and maintain the highest level of professionalism in the field of law enforcement and to gain the full support and cooperation of the public we serve.

WE BELIEVE in a fraternity of law enforcement executive, the primary strength of which lies in the camaraderie and close personal relationships that develop among its members. Often, it is that bond, more than any other aspect of this profession, that determines success or failure in some of the most difficult, joint criminal investigations. That interaction, a salient characteristic of the Association, enhances the quality of mutual support and cooperation necessary for the attainment of desirable law enforcement objectives.

WE GOVERN the Association through a Board of Officers consisting of a President, five Vice Presidents, a Sergeant-at Arms, an Executive Director, a Treasurer, a Secretary, a Chaplain, an Chief Counsel, and an Executive Board consisting of fifteen members-two from each of the New England states-plus three Directors-at-Large; and several Committees including: Crime Prevention, Drug, Highway Safety, Membership, Resolutions, Criminal Science, Heroic Awards, Jimmy Fund and Public Relations.

WE MEET (the Officers and Executive Board) at quarterly meetings to conduct the Association's business and at the Annual, three-day Conference, to which the entire membership and their guests are invited.

WE CONDUCT and transact the business and proceedings of this Association in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Association as set forth in its Constitution and By-Laws when, and as, they are adopted, amended or rescinded by a two-thirds majority vote of all Active and Active Live Members present at any Annual or Regular meeting of this Association.

WE PUBLISH an annual "Chief" magazine which contains a roster of all New England Police Chiefs, the Association Officers, Executive Board and Committee Members, Annual Conference Highlights, information relative to new legislation, court decisions, legal matters, crime prevention, and sundry other topics of interest to law enforcement practitioners, as well as business listings.

Notices of current events and other news items are provided in the Executive Directors' Bulletin, published periodically.
