April 9, 2018

Dear Colleagues & Friends:

It has been almost six months since I was installed into my position as President of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police. It has been very exciting and also rewarding as a Chief to be in an organization that represents six states in New England. Holding this position has truly been the highest honor that I have received in my career as a chief of police.

I want to thank the Executive Board for their dedication and hard work throughout the year. The Executive Board, consisting of members from all six states, is a hard-working group of chiefs who are committed to improving the profession. While our Executive Board members represent varying size departments, there are several commonalities shared amongst them. One of the large issues that all New England states are dealing with is the opioid epidemic. This epidemic has touch the lives of many people in our municipalities and has impacted the law enforcement response to opioid-related incidents.

I would like to also thank our Executive Director, Jack Coyle, for his tireless work and dedication to this organization. Jack is in constant communication with me and keeping me up-to-date on all the important issues that need to be addressed. Thank you for your service to the NEACOP.

I also attended a meeting with representatives from Roger Williams University, who expressed their continued commitment to working with the New England Chiefs in the providing both command training classes and online Associates degree programs at a reduced fee for those chiefs who are members of the organization. We all know that the more training we provide our officers the better equipped they are to accomplish their duties in a more professional manner.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

I would be like to take this time to thank Dean Robert W. McKenna for his years of service as the liaison between Roger Williams University and the New England Chiefs. He will be retiring from his position with Roger Williams University. The Executive Board and I would like to thank him and wish him well during his retirement. The liaison position has been filled by Denise Owens, Assistant Director of the Justice System for Justice Studies at Roger Williams. Since the time she has been elected to the board, she has been instrumental in compiling a master list of all chiefs in New England. This is integral in order to ensure that all chiefs in New England are able to stay abreast of what is happening in our organization as well as available training opportunities.

Along with other benefits that the organization provides are line of duty death benefits. All chiefs who are members of the New England Chiefs, along with their department members, are eligible for this benefit.

This year, the 93rd Annual Conference has been scheduled for September 10th to the 12th. It is being held at the Ashworth by the Sea in Hampton, New Hampshire. I am hoping that chiefs, along with their command staff, are able to attend this annual training and the installation of the incoming President, Chief Kevin Schofield, of the Bridgton Police Department.

In closing, I want to thank all those who work so hard in the police profession. They risk their lives in our ever-changing world we live in to protect our citizens. I pray for their continued safety.

Sincerely,

HEROIC AWARD

NEACOP Medal of Valor

The NEACOP Medal of Valor is awarded in recognition for heroic acts every day, risking their lives to save others throughout New England and will be recognized for their acts of exceptional valor from our Association. This is the highest heroic award that a police officer can receive from the New England Association of Chiefs of Police and the highlight of our conference.

After careful consideration, Mark E. Leonard, Chairman, of the very prestigious Heroic Award Committee will award Officer Nathan Pimental of the New Bedford Police Department the Medal of Valor at the 93rd Annual Training Conference Banquet, Wednesday, September 12th.

Congratulations

CODE OF ETHICS

For Police Executives

NEW ENGLAND ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE, INC.

We, members of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., recognizing our responsibilities to the communities we serve and our obligations to society in general and with the knowledge that our profession requires the highest ideals and rules of conduct, hereby adopt the following code of ethics for police executives, and commend them to all persons in the police profession for their guidance.

We will put honesty, truth and justice above all other considerations, and we will not allow friendship, enmity, social position, political influence, nor personal motives to swerve us from the impartial performance of duty.

We will neither solicit nor accept, any gift, privilege, favor or advantage from any person which will place us under any obligation to overlook any violation of a law, or violate the ethics of our profession.

We will observe all the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and will never illegally deprive any person of any right guaranteed by the great document. We will not become involved in any social, political, or religious controversy except as neutral agents of the public, and we will at all times endeavor to carry out the desires of the majority of citizens as legally expressed through proper legislative, judicial or executive channels of government.

Having efficient police administration as our objective, we recognize the need for professional fitness on the part of police executives and subordinates. We pledge ourselves to advance the science of police service through training courses and other methods adequate to meet the proper requirements of our profession.

Recognizing the mutual dependence of all law enforcement and social agencies, we pledge our cooperation to all officials and agencies interested in the promotion of justice and the improvement of social conditions. We will not allow envy, jealousy, or any other motive to interfere with such cooperation.

We will be fair with subordinates showing only that favor which has been honestly earned by meritorious service to the public: demanding that all police officers perform their duties and enforce the laws with impartiality, judgment and courtesy.

We recognize our responsibility to the press as a medium through which the public we serve can be kept informed of our activities. We solicit its support in all honest police endeavor, and its condemnation of any act or policy detrimental to the best interests of society. We deplore violations of the code of ethics for journalism in connection with publication of police news and respectfully recommend observance of that code.

NEW ENGLAND ASSOCIATION CHIEFS OF POLICE INCORPORATED BRIEF HISTORY

- The New England Association of Chiefs of Police founded in 1926 and incorporated 13th of February , 1939 in the state of Rhode Island.
- In 1933, Michael Healy, Chief of Police of Manchester, NH, was the first elected representative President from the state of NH.
- The first organized conference was held at the Parker House, Boston, MA in 1939.
- The second and third conferences were held in northern New England in 1940 at the Hotel Burlington in VT and the second at 1941 at the Mt. Washington in Brentonwoods, NH. For the next four decades most of the conferences were held in northern New England.
- NEACOP has over three and a half decades in northern New England
- In 1967, Thomas McLaughlin training office at the FBI Boston office and the president of Babson College formed a partnership for advance training for superior officers in the New England states. Police training at this not a priority in the law enforcer field.
- The program resulted in over 16,000 supervisory officers trained in numerous programs over the next 35 years.
- The command training institute of law enforcement management was a condensed program mirrored after the national FBI academy at Quantico, VA.
- The first director of the academy was Bruno Wilson, retired from the FBI Boston office. In his third year as a director, Director Wilson, had a massive heart attack while jogging during his lunch break. He died at the age of 48.
- At that point Deputy Chief Arthur Kehas of Manchester, NH Police Department was appointed as director.
- After two years, Deputy Chief Kehas left the program and returned to Manchester PD.
- After the departure of Chief Kehas, the next three and half decades Retired superintendents from the Boston PD was appointed as Directors of the program. Deputy Superintendent John Holland of the Boston Police Department was the first in succession.
- Followed by Charles Barry
- John Krecler was last in succession
- In April 2003, the President of Babson College informed the Association that the facilities at Woodland Park would now be used to house an engineering college. Therefore, the Association would need to relocate off campus.
- The University of Massachusetts at Brockton, MA offered a new location for the program . Recognizing the program worthy of receiving college credits.
- Retired Major Gerald Burke of the MA State Police agreed to take on the role as the new director.
- In 2003, Director Burke informed the Association he was resigning from the program to train police officers in Iraq. This resulted in a partnership with Roger Williams University of Bristol, RI.
- In partnership with the Justice System Training and Research Institute at Roger Williams University, Bristol, RI, the Association continues a tradition that began in 1967 with the New England Institute for Law Enforcement Management to expand training and education, particularly in specialized management and leadership principles for law enforcement supervisor, command officers, managers, and administration.
- Associate Dean Robert McKenna was appointed as director to continue this program.
- January 2018, Associate Dean Robert McKenna, M.S., J.D., retired and David Lambert, Ph.D., took over as Director for the JSTRI and Assistant Dean for the school of Justice, July 1, 2018.
- The Association sponsors scholarships to the Command Training Series at Roger Williams University and makes annual contributions to the Jimmy Fund, Special Olympics, as well as, other charitable causes.
- The Association continues to live out its legacy by providing education and development to create tomorrow's officers.
