OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

The New England Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc.

Office of the President

Dear: Friends and Colleagues;

First, let me state that it has been an honor and privilege to serve as President of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police this past year. Since becoming a member of the Board of Directors in 2012, I have had the opportunity to develop both personal and professional relationships that I will always cherish. Being the only organization that represents the Law Enforcement in all six New England States not only affords us an opportunity to work with professionals in each state, it allows us to have a greater voice in areas impacting our profession, at the local, state and regional levels.

Highlighting some of our accomplishments over the past year, I would like to point out our successful conference held in Hampton, New Hampshire. Our relationship with Eric Daigle and Eric Atstupenas of Daigle Law has proven invaluable in providing quality training highly sought out at the national level. In addition to training in social media and liability in high risk events, we were able to bring in members of the Orlando (Florida) SWAT team to do a brief on the Pulse nightclub active shooter. The increased attendance and energy of the conference is a good foundation to continued growth of this year's conference at Mohegan Sun.

Like any association, our strength is in membership. A stated goal was to increase membership and awareness of the association. In addition to creating a TWITTER account for some social media exposure, we created an email data base and used our GMAIL account to communicate and recruit membership. These efforts have been successful as our membership has increased.

An important function of our association is to be able to support legislation that impact our profession. This year, Governor Charles Baker of Massachusetts drafted a dangerous person bill. This bill was introduced at least in part due to the line of duty deaths of Sgt. Sean Gannon of Yarmouth (Massachusetts) Police Department and Corporal Eugene Cole of the Somerset County Maine Sheriff's department. We were proud to write a letter of support for Governor Baker's bill, which if enacted would reduce the opportunity for dangerous criminals to be in public and a threat to the general public and law enforcement.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

In addition to taking a position on various legislation, one of the most important functions of NEACOP and benefit to being a member of NEACOP is the $2500 death benefit provided to an officer's family in case of a line of duty death. We also provide a lesser amount for other tragic events. This past year we were able to provide financial support for the family of Sgt. Sean Gannon of Yarmouth Massachusetts and Det. Ben Campbell's family of the Maine State Police. We also provided support for families in Sanford Maine and Pelham New Hampshire who lost their homes to fire shortly before Christmas.

NEACOP is also proud to be associated and provide financial support to the Jimmy Fund as well as the Special Olympics in each state. These are effective and important organizations that help improve the lives of many people in our region.

Effective relationships are important to the success of any association. The New England Association of Chiefs of Police was established in 1926, and over the past 93 years the association has had many such partnerships. In addition to Eric Daigle and Daigle Law, since 2002 NEACOP has had a partnership with Roger Williams University. As a result of this partnership, in addition to providing facilities to conduct business meetings, Roger Williams has provided training to almost 23,000 law enforcement professionals in areas of Supervision, Management, and Field Training. Additionally, RWU now offers discounted online tuition for member departments for an associate's degree program.

I would like to give special recognition to Denise Owens who after 16 years as Assistant Director at Roger Williams University has retired. Denise has been a tremendous resource and has dedicated over two decades of her professional life to law enforcement and justice agencies. Congratulations on a well-deserved retirement Denise!!

I would like to thank and congratulate the entire Board of Directors for a productive and successful year. A special thank you to our Executive Director Jack Coyle, whose expertise, experience and dedication to the association proved invaluable.

Best of luck to our incoming president Pat Daley of Norwich Connecticut on another successful year.

Sincerely;

Kevin L. Schofield

President.

CODE OF ETHICS

For Police Executives

NEW ENGLAND ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE, INC.

We, members of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., recognizing our responsibilities to the communities we serve and our obligations to society in general and with the knowledge that our profession requires the highest ideals and rules of conduct, hereby adopt the following code of ethics for police executives, and commend them to all persons in the police profession for their guidance.

We will put honesty, truth and justice above all other considerations, and we will not allow friendship, enmity, social position, political influence, nor personal motives to swerve us from the impartial performance of duty.

We will neither solicit nor accept, any gift, privilege, favor or advantage from any person which will place us under any obligation to overlook any violation of a law, or violate the ethics of our profession.

We will observe all the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and will never illegally deprive any person of any right guaranteed by the great document. We will not become involved in any social, political, or religious controversy except as neutral agents of the public, and we will at all times endeavor to carry out the desires of the majority of citizens as legally expressed through proper legislative, judicial or executive channels of government.

Having efficient police administration as our objective, we recognize the need for professional fitness on the part of police executives and subordinates. We pledge ourselves to advance the science of police service through training courses and other methods adequate to meet the proper requirements of our profession.

Recognizing the mutual dependence of all law enforcement and social agencies, we pledge our cooperation to all officials and agencies interested in the promotion of justice and the improvement of social conditions. We will not allow envy, jealousy, or any other motive to interfere with such cooperation.

We will be fair with subordinates showing only that favor which has been honestly earned by meritorious service to the public: demanding that all police officers perform their duties and enforce the laws with impartiality, judgment and courtesy.

We recognize our responsibility to the press as a medium through which the public we serve can be kept informed of our activities. We solicit its support in all honest police endeavor, and its condemnation of any act or policy detrimental to the best interests of society. We deplore violations of the code of ethics for journalism in connection with publication of police news and respectfully recommend observance of that code.
