October 5, 2020

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It has been a little over a year since I assumed the Presidency of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police, and what a year it has been. Law enforcement has been tested by a worldwide pandemic and nationwide protests against police misconduct that sadly too often became violent. We have seen municipalities move to “defund” police agencies and states’ move to reform policing with sweeping legislative mandates.

The only constant during this year has been the sense on comraderies and commonality of purpose generated by NEACOP. I have reached out to fellow Chiefs throughout New England to gain insight into issues in my state. I learned that we are truly all in this tougher and we need to show a united front and stand as one when possible. Our agencies and personnel need us to be at our best, and after this trying year, they have truly earned that.

Last fall we met at the Annual Conference at the Mohegan Sun and had very direct talks about the direction we wanted the Association to move in. Even through the issues raised by the pandemic and our lack of in person meetings, we began the work and got much accomplished. It is not the time to look back and congratulate ourselves for how we advanced the Association, rather to keep our “foot on the gas” and continue to provide value and mentorship to our members. We have a good roadmap to our continued success and we need to hold ourselves accountable to see it through to fruition.

As the organization moves forward, I would like to recognize two members who stepped down from their roles in 2020. Our Legal Counsel Aram Jarrett will be moving into a well-earned retirement after countless years of service. We thank you Aram. Our Executive Director John Daly Coyle, (Jack) stepped down after 38 exemplary years of service to the Association. Jack was the glue that held the Association tighter for many years and the Association owes him a great debt. I cannot thank him enough for the hours of personal counsel he gave me as First Vice President and as President, I miss his morning calls. In recognition for his service the Executive Board named Jack as our Executive Director Emeritus upon receipt of his resignation.

Douglas Johnston is doing a stellar job as Interim Executive Director. He found way to increase efficiency and streamline the Association. He too has put in many hours working to provide value to our membership. Examples of this can be found in the revamped Executive Directors Bulletin and our website.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

I wish to also thank your Executive Board. The Association had more meetings this year than during any year in recent memory. We slowly all became ZOOM experts as we operated in virtual meetings. The Executive Board, all active Chiefs of Police, found the time to work toward a greater good. Again, I thank you. I also want to thank our Secretary, Treasurer and Parliamentarian for their hard work also.

Our incoming President, Chief Brian Sullivan is well suited to the presidency and we will do great things under his leadership.

I think I can say we are all looking forward to a much better 2021!

CODE OF ETHICS

For Police Executives

NEW ENGLAND ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE, INC.

We, members of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., recognizing our responsibilities to the communities we serve and our obligations to society in general and with the knowledge that our profession requires the highest ideals and rules of conduct, hereby adopt the following code of ethics for police executives, and commend them to all persons in the police profession for their guidance.

We will put honesty, truth and justice above all other considerations, and we will not allow friendship, enmity, social position, political influence, nor personal motives to swerve us from the impartial performance of duty.

We will neither solicit nor accept, any gift, privilege, favor or advantage from any person which will place us under any obligation to overlook any violation of a law, or violate the ethics of our profession.

We will observe all the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and will never illegally deprive any person of any right guaranteed by the great document. We will not become involved in any social, political, or religious controversy except as neutral agents of the public, and we will at all times endeavor to carry out the desires of the majority of citizens as legally expressed through proper legislative, judicial or executive channels of government.

Having efficient police administration as our objective, we recognize the need for professional fitness on the part of police executives and subordinates. We pledge ourselves to advance the science of police service through training courses and other methods adequate to meet the proper requirements of our profession.

Recognizing the mutual dependence of all law enforcement and social agencies, we pledge our cooperation to all officials and agencies interested in the promotion of justice and the improvement of social conditions. We will not allow envy, jealousy, or any other motive to interfere with such cooperation.

We will be fair with subordinates showing only that favor which has been honestly earned by meritorious service to the public: demanding that all police officers perform their duties and enforce the laws with impartiality, judgment and courtesy.

We recognize our responsibility to the press as a medium through which the public we serve can be kept informed of our activities. We solicit its support in all honest police endeavor, and its condemnation of any act or policy detrimental to the best interests of society. We deplore violations of the code of ethics for journalism in connection with publication of police news and respectfully recommend observance of that code.
