

2025 NEACOP Annual Training Conference

Join us for NEACOP's 100th Annual Training Conference! Two full days of in-person training, expert speakers, vendors, networking with law enforcement leadership, and an awards banquet. You won't want to miss!

Mystic Marriott Hotel & Spa in Groton, CT

Full Conference: September 7th-10th

Training Days: September 8th & 9th

<https://neacop.org/2025-neacop-annual-training-conference/>

Mario Oliveira

Retired Somerville Police Detective and ATF Task Force Officer, Oliveira survived being shot six times. He now advocates for injured officers and their families as founder of the Violently Injured Police Officers Association and President of New England C.O.P.S. He co-authored the #1 Amazon bestseller Gunrunner and speaks nationally on survival and resilience.

Scott Dunlap

Scott Dunlap, General Counsel to the Massachusetts FOP, has nearly 30 years of experience representing public safety unions, officers, and police chiefs. His legal work spans courts, arbitrations, and labor boards, with a focus on legal defense and labor rights in law enforcement.

The Quell Foundation First Responders: Sound the Alarm

This award winning documentary highlights the mental health struggles of first responders, revealing cultural stigma and barriers to care. It calls for better access to competent treatment and ends with a panel discussion on reform and resilience.

Navy SEALs: Honor, Leadership, and the American Dream

Thomas "Drago" Dzieran, author of The Pledge to America, is accompanied by fellow SEAL veterans Joel Chapman and J.D. Donaldson. They'll share powerful lessons in teamwork, leadership under pressure, and dedicated service. Through personal stories, they explore the shared values that unite military and law enforcement: integrity, resilience, and the pursuit of the American Dream.

